

Year Six: Rights Respecting Knowledge Organiser

The Big Idea

It is important that children know that every person has rights and these are protected by law. Their rights cannot be taken away. They should understand why it is important to respect others, regardless of their differences, and this should be reflected in their interactions. They should understand that there are consequences for discriminating against others.

Our Linked Text

Human Rights

We can all share our human rights, no matter who you are or where you live.

Protected Rights

Our human rights belong to us, they are protected by law and no one can take them away.

Other Cultures

It is important that we respect other people's cultures, even if they are different from our own.

Discrimination

It is against the law to discriminate against anyone because of their gender, religion, disability or certain other personal characteristics. There are consequences for discriminating.

Vocabulary

rights    human rights activist    equality    universal discrimination    consequence    culture