

Year Six: For Christians, what kind of king is Jesus?

Knowledge Organiser

The Big Idea

Should a king be able to do what he wants?

In Jesus' parables, who is invited into God's kingdom?

There are different groups that are invited into God's kingdom. Luke 14:12-24 tells the story of the Great Banquet.

According to Jesus' teachings, how important is forgiveness in God's kingdom?

What difference it would make if everyone practised forgiveness? Matthew 18:21-35 tells the story of the unforgiving servant.

How does Christian Aid try to make the world more like God's Kingdom?

Christian Aid believes that everyone is equal in the sight of God. They stand together in solidarity with our most marginalised global communities, of all faiths and none.

They seek to eradicate extreme poverty by tackling its root causes.

How do Christians see God's kingdom as being now and in the future?

Christians see God's kingdom in different ways. One way to see it as making this world a better place. Another is to see it as describing a future eternal perspective, about a future heaven.

For Christians, what are the features of God's kingdom and Jesus' kingship?

Some Christians believe God's kingdom is hidden but effective – a small start but a big impact. God's kingdom is worth everything – gaining it brings joy. God is in charge, and he is welcoming and forgiving.

Vocabulary

parable kingdom forgiving salvation unforgiving banquet inheritance social unjust biblical