End of Year Letter

Dear Parents/Carers,

The end of the school academic year is approaching quickly – what a year it has been! Firstly, I'd like to say a huge thank you on behalf of the staff and governors for your unwavering support over the year. Your children are a delight and are a credit to you. We look forward to continuing our journey of excellence in September to ensure all pupils 'Believe, Achieve & Succeed'. Our school community has certainly demonstrated resilience, determination and above all, kindness to one another.

Year 6

To our Year Six pupils, you have all worked so hard throughout your time at Masefield and we have enjoyed watching you learn and seeing your achievements. Good luck in your new schools and remember that you can achieve whatever you set your mind to. You are amazing!

Staffing

From September, Miss Harper will be working at Red Lane Primary School in a similar role.

Miss Scholes is taking a sabbatical to travel around the world and Mrs Marshall is leaving ALFA music service who supply our music provision to focus on forest school teaching.

I'm sure you will join me in wishing them well in their new roles.

In September we are welcoming back Mrs Rose from maternity leave who has worked with us previously.

Our staff structure for next year is as follows:

Nursery	Mrs Murphy	Reception	Mrs Clark (EYFS Lead & SENCO)
Year 1	Mrs Walton	Year 2	Miss Tyrer (Y1-3 Phase Lead)
