End of Year Letter

Dear Parents/Carers,

The end of the school academic year is approaching quickly – what a year it has been! Firstly, I'd like to say a huge thank you on behalf of the staff and governors for your unwavering support over the year. Your children are a delight and are a credit to you. We look forward to continuing our journey of excellence in September to ensure all pupils 'Believe, Achieve & Succeed'. Our school community has certainly demonstrated resilience, determination and above all, kindness to one another.

Year 6

To our Year Six pupils, you have all worked so hard throughout your time at Masefield and we have enjoyed watching you learn and seeing your achievements. Good luck in your new schools and remember that you can achieve whatever you set your mind to. You are amazing!

From September, Mrs Behan will be working at Red Lane as Assistant Head.
