

Deepening Understanding
YR6 Fictional Letter
Targeted Inference Questions

This set of questions is based upon the text 'Letter To an Evacuee' by Vicky Birch.

Q1

'...but it's over (for now).'
What does the phrase 'for now' imply?

1 Mark

Q2

Why might Mum have been 'tense' since Chamberlain declared war?

2 Marks

Q3

Look at the paragraph beginning, 'immediately...'
What can you infer about Olivia's character from this?

2 Marks

Q4

Why does it seem like 'an eternity' that they were inside the Anderson Shelter?

1 Mark

Q5

Look at the quote below. What does this imply about life in London before the night these events occurred?

'War has well and truly come to London.'

1 Mark

Q6

Look at the final paragraph. What impression do you get of what life is like during the war from this paragraph?

2 Marks

Q7

Use evidence from the text to describe the relationship between Olivia and Benny.

2 Marks

Q8

Which word best describes how Olivia is feeling throughout this event?

excited

scared

anxious

Explain why!

2 Marks

